		The names on this sheet except Nos. 1, 2, & 50 are inhabitants of the newly settled Township of Elzvir who have settled there with the expectation that the Government would give them a free grant of 50 acres of land. The Township is watered by the head waters of the River Moira and Beaver Creek - this last stream has a number of lakes from which it is fed some of which are well stored with fish of different kinds. The timber is of all kinds all kinds fit for the lumber market but cannot be procured but at an expense which would not remunerate.
