* I would here remark that in many families there are members of the family which have different names for instance where a widow marries the second time having children by the first husband, as also as in such cases of this of Philadelphia, Pa. who is a young child of Jane Eberne and a permanent resident of the family, there are also frequent cases of Northern and Western laws.

John Miller, owns a saw mill which is situated in lot 22 in township, it cut about 2000 is wrought by water and capable of producing 2000 feet of lumber daily
